

Title: Project Engineers

Duties: Provide design, procurement, construction, engineering and commissioning support for the execution of CAPEX projects from initiation to completion in pharmaceutical industry; maintaining project budgets and schedules; providing technical guidance and support throughout the project lifecycle; utilize Project Engineering, Project Management tools, MS projects, Procore, Primavera P6, Autodesk, SolidWorks 3D modeling, etc.; collaborating with various stakeholders, including project teams, vendors, and management; conducting feasibility studies for potential CAPEX projects, assessing their viability and aligning them with business needs. Identifying, assessing, and mitigating potential risks; maintaining accurate and up-to-date project documentation; ensuring that projects are completed to the required quality standards; addressing technical and logistical challenges that arise during the project lifecycle.

Requirements: MS or foreign equivalent in Mechanical Engineering, Production Engineering, Bioengineering or Project Management or Engineering or Technology or Related and 1 year experience in engineering design and technical support for CAPEX projects for the pharmaceutical industry.

Location: Cumming GA

Full Time. Travel involved to client locations within the US.

Respond to: HR, Crossword Staffing Solutions LLC, 410 Peachtree Parkway STE 4245, Cumming GA 30041

Positions are eligible for the employee referral program.